address grievances of the Faculty/Staff and students. They should meet once in a month and record the minutes of the meeting with the cases of faculty/staff and students dealt with.

Department Suggestion Book: Every department opens a register and make it available in front of the HOD's cabin. HOD should review and take appropriate action at his level or forward this register to higher authorities with his recommendations once in a month and actions taken should be noted in the register. He should communicate to the concerned student regarding the actions taken and record the same in the register within three months without fail. This is only for genuine problems.

College Suggestion Book: An Institution suggestion book should be opened in front of the Principal's Office on similar lines as above.

Central Grievance Redressal Committee: All the grievances of students and staff, which could not be settled by the departments are referred to this committee and the Committee tries to settle the issues amicably in one month. If needed, parents can be called for advise or help.
